DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Applicant's election with traverse of Group I and the species in claim 15 in Paper No. 8 is acknowledged. The traversal is on the ground(s) that the examiner has supposedly not indicated why the prosecution of all the claims in the application presents a serious burden. This is not found persuasive because as stated in the previous office action, the groups are properly restrictable from each other and applicant is reminded of the extensive literature search involved which is not co-extensive.

Claims 7-14 are withdrawn from further consideration as being drawn to non-elected subject matter.

The requirement is still deemed proper and is therefore made FINAL.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Art Unit: 1654

Claims 1-6, 15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Bay et al., WO 00/59863, Leone-Bay et al. '536 or Leone-Bay et al. '647 taken with GB 2295966 or WO 0057857, and Purkaystha et al. or EP 438147.

The references each teach 5-CNAC, salmon calcitonin or crospovidone individually in the art. It would have been obvious to use the combination of them together in one composition since they are known individually in the art to be used for the same purpose, namely, for therapeutic purposes.

It is well known that it is prima facie obvious to combine two or more ingredients each of which is taught by the prior art to be useful for the same purpose in order to form a third composition which is useful for the same purpose. The idea for combining them flows logically from their having been used individually in the prior art. In re Sussman, 1943 C.D. 518; In re Pinten, 459 F.2d 1053, 173 USPQ 801 (CCPA 1972); In re Susi, 58 CCPA 1074, 1079-80; 440 F.2d 442, 445; 169 USPQ 423, 426 (1971); In re Crockett, 47 CCPA 1018, 1020-21; 279 F.2d 274, 276-277; 126 USPQ 186, 188 (1960).
